- Annex: Resources

1a. Introduction

- The Policy on Project-affected People's Mechanism (PPM Policy) was adopted on Dec. 7, 2018 and became effective on March 31, 2019.
- As per the PPM Policy:
  - “The Policy shall be reviewed no later than five years from its adoption. The MD-CEIU shall initiate and guide the review. The review shall take into account the views gathered through public consultations, including with Project-affected communities, AIIB Members, clients and other stakeholders” (PPM Policy, Clause 11.4).
- PPM review is due in FY2024.
- The MD-CEIU is initiating the policy review process through the presentation of this Roadmap for endorsement of the Policy and Strategy Committee (PSC).

1b. Objective and Elements of the Review

- Objective

- To assess the effectiveness of the PPM and make recommendations to the Board of Directors (the Board) for enhancing the PPM's visibility, accessibility, and responsiveness to Project-affected People, and AIIB's accountability.

- Elements of the Review

- Survey on the visibility and accessibility of the PPM
- Approach paper on the PPM Review
- External review (to look at the PPM experience so far, lessons learned, best practices)
- Stakeholder consultations (AIIB Members, Clients (sovereign & nonsovereign), implementing agencies, CSOs/NGOs, project-affected communities, operational staff, etc.)
- Interaction with peer IAMs also undergoing policy reviews.
- Consultation with AIIB Management
- Legal inputs from the General Counsel
- PSC and Board guidance, endorsement and policy approval

1c. Guiding Principles for the Review

- The MD-CEIU initiates and guides the review.
- Strict focus on the PPM Policy.
- Transparency and disclosure of all relevant documents.
- Inclusive and broad (internal and external) consultative process.
- Build upon institutional experience and learning.
- Clear distinction between findings of the review and potential policy revisions. As per the Rules of Procedure of the Board of Directors, the President, based on the MD-CEIU's proposal, will submit and include in the Board agenda any final recommended revisions of the policy to the Board.
- The review will consider potential improvements in the current policy or its implementation based on lessons learned from PPM's own experience as well as of other IAMs.

2. Emerging Issues for the Review

- The review will identify the key issues related to the effectiveness of the PPM and make recommendations to address the identified issues as appropriate. Some of the emerging issues and topics, without making any judgement on them, are listed below.
- PPM Visibility
  - Information on the PPM in project documents and AIIB website.
  - Project-affected people don't know about AIIB as a financier and the PPM as an IAM.
  - Increased outreach at the grass-roots level.
- PPM Accessibility
  - Who can trigger the PPM.
  - Ineligibility of submissions to the PPM in co-financed projects.
  - Direct access to the PPM without prior contact with the project-level grievance redress mechanism (GRM) or Management.
  - Eligibility of issues under arbitral or judicial review.
  - Choice of representation.
- PPM Effectiveness
  - Providing recommendations to address non-compliance findings.
  - Monitoring action plans.
