

ASIAN INFRASTRUCTURE INVESTMENT BANK

Gerard Sanders

General Counsel

Sanders advises the President and governance bodies of AIIB and is responsible for the legal aspects of the Bank's work. Prior to joining AIIB, he was General Counsel of the International Fund for Agricultural Development, previously having worked at the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development, most recently as Deputy General Counsel. Beforehand, he worked with law firms in Wellington; Washington, D.C. and Amsterdam and in a corporate role in London. Sanders has graduate law degrees from Victoria University of Wellington and Harvard Law School. He is a Chartered Accountant (ANZ), a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators, Visiting Professorial Fellow at Queen Mary College, University of London and Visiting Scholar of China University of Political Science and Law. He is qualified to practice law in New Zealand, the state of Victoria in Australia and England and Wales. Sanders is a national of New Zealand.