

ASIAN INFRASTRUCTURE INVESTMENT BANK

Laval Wong Sick Wah

Chief Audit Officer

Wah is a Fellow Chartered Accountant England & Wales, a Certified Internal Auditor, a Certified Financial Services Auditor, a Certified Fraud Examiner and has a Certification in Control Self-Assessment. He is a Dean's lister in the Executive Master of Business Administration at the Singapore Management University. He was the Head of Group Audit for Asia Pacific and Middle East at ABN AMRO Bank NV based in Singapore. With rich experience in financial institutions, he has set up and headed the internal audit departments of foreign banks in Singapore to provide professional and independent assurance and added value to support the achievement of the organization's objectives. He evaluates both the design and effectiveness of the Governance, Risk management and Compliance processes; works with management on action plans and maintains oversight on resolution of audit issues. He is experienced across different cultures in Asia Pacific including Japan and the Middle East and has served in the Board of The Institute of Internal Auditors Singapore for several years as Board of Governor, Treasurer and as President of the Institute of Internal Auditors, Singapore. He has led over 800 internal auditors globally to comply with the Standards of the Institute of Internal Auditors on Quality Assurance. Wah is a national of Singapore.