

ASIAN INFRASTRUCTURE INVESTMENT BANK

Tony Wan

Chief Ethics Officer

Wan is responsible for ensuring that all AIIB personnel observe and perform their functions consistent with the ethical standards required by the Code of Conduct for Bank Personnel. He spent more than three decades in human resource management, primarily in multilateral development institutions. Prior to his current appointment in September 2017, Wan led AIIB's Human Resources Department. He previously served as Director of Human Resources and Director of Central Administration at the Asian Development Bank and the World Bank Group. He holds a professional diploma in administrative management from the United Kingdom and a certificate in Advanced Management from the University of Chicago. Wan is a Singapore national.